Stay Close | John Eldredge

"So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in Him." (Col 2.6, NIV)

"Remain in Me, and I will remain in you," Jesus said (Jn 15.4) A simple command, so it seems. And yet we overlook it. If Jesus must tell us to remain in Him, then He seems to be assuming that it's quite possible not to remain in Him. The common life is, in fact, a life lived separate from Him, which is a dangerous place to live. An old saint once said to me that the devil doesn't much care what particular thing we fall prey to as long as it's outside of Christ, for then we are vulnerable.

I want to two thing that are mutually opposed. I want to live a nice little life, and I want to play an important role in God's kingdom. And it's in those times that I am trying to live a nice little life that I make decisions and choices that cause me in small and subtle ways to live outside of Jesus.

You cannot enjoy the fellowship of God, or His protection, or all the benefits of His kingdom unless you remain in Him -- that is, live in Him -- in your day-to-day life. Vine and branches, Shepherd and sheep. Stay close. Stay with me, Jesus is saying.

Ronnie's Thoughts...

The KJV uses the word "walk" rather than "live." The word "walk," in the Scriptures, is used to denote the manner of life; therefore, they should live and act entirely under the influence of the Savior. In other words, continue to live in such a way as to put His words into practice in your own life; let them regulate your whole conduct.

Concluded | Stay Close | John Eldredge

The apostle Paul's meaning here is simple: Since you have embraced the doctrine of Christ, continue to hold to it, and do not permit yourself to be turned away from it by other types of teaching or lifestyles that are contrary to Christ.

May you be blessed as you contemplate what it is Christ is wanting from you and as you then put it into practice in your life.
