Prayer Requests

Della Turnbull was put in a walking cast this past week.

Dennis & Cindy Dussia – Dennis continues to deal with an infection in his foot. Cindy is waiting for surgery to be rescheduled.

Moe Handy is waiting to hear if he qualifies for a pain management device for his shoulder pain.

Sonya Hewitt's eye surgery to repair her macula went well.

Barbara Hurst dealing with respiratory issues.

Dan Strope will be having a biopsy on the 16th.

William Wells is recovering from eye surgery.

Susan Jarrett, Dan Strope's coworker received news that the polyps that were found are cancerous; however, this form of cancer is not treatable.

Buena Hey, Della's 95yr old aunt, has been in the hospital with COVID, heart failure, and fluid build-up. She is showing a little improvement.

Marie Godar, GayLee's daughter, fell and broke her sternum.

Shults Lewis CHILD & FAMILY SERVICES

Commodity Food Drive

We have been asked to help with collecting the following items.

Toilet Bowl Cleaner

Paper Towels

Gift Cards (Meijer, Wal-Mart, Target, or Aldi)

Money for Perishable Bill

They will also accept used ink cartridges and old cell phones. And don't forget those filled change cans. They will be here to pick items up the week of April 23rd.

Celebrations This Week

Birthday

None to Report

Anniversary

7th Lonnie & Helen Shoopman (64yrs)

Upcoming Events

Morning Glories will meet Saturday, January 11th @ 10am in the Fellowship Hall. These ladies have a ministry that involves sending out cards and making gift baskets for our shut-in's.

Love Feast / Potluck Fellowship Sunday, February 12th

Please make plans to join us. You are asked to bring a covered dish (meat or side) and/or dessert to share. Be sure to invite others.

The elders will also hold a quick family meeting to share 2023 budget.

We will be hosting the Shults-Lewis Phone Campaign here at the building on Monday, March 13th, from 6-8:30pm. We need some volunteers to help. They will provide the numbers of previous donors to contact.

We welcome to the family Shane Kollar and rejoice with him as he accepted Christ last Sunday.
