Prayer Requests

Cindy Dussia taking chemo treatments.

Moe Handy continues to deal with severe shoulder pain.

Angie Hewitt dealing with a lot of stress at work.

Sharon Lasiter continues immunotherapy.

Pam Sherrill continues to recover from heart valve replacement.

GayLee Sutton taking therapy after knee replacement.

Family & Friends of Members

Cheryl Culin, wife of Eric & Amy Wiwczaroski's friend, had an aneurysm that ruptured and bled onto her brain. She had surgery to stop any further bleeding. She has a long road to recovery and there are still risks for complications, but doctors are optimistic as she has no impairment or paralysis at this time.

Marie Hogue, Lavana's friend, has been placed in hospice care after suffering a heart attack.

David Jones, Burris' friend, myeloid leukemia, starting chemotherapy.

Margaret, Dan Strope's co-worker, has finished cancer treatments for now. Doctors are letting her body heal. She will have follow-up tests to determine the effectiveness of the treatments.

Debbie Scales, Ed & Lavana's sister-in-law, was diagnosed with malignant neoplasm of duodenum and will be undergoing chemotherapy for the next 6 months.

Bob Stewart, Angie Hewitt's dad, continues to lose weight and get weaker.

Annette Swetnam, wife of George Hewitt's supervisor, has Guillain-Barre syndrome.

Jacob Turnbull, Della's grandson, treatments to save hearing. He has received 2 shots in his eardrum and has 3 more to go.
